In consideration that the PAID-WA Journals, should take action in reviewing and editing our manuscript, the authors undersigned hereby transfer, assign, or otherwise convey all copyright ownership to the Editorial Office of the PAID-WA Journals in the event that such work is published in the journal. Such conveyance covers any product that may derive from the published journal, whether print or electronic. PAID-WA Journals shall have the right to register copyright to the Article in its name as claimant, whether separately or as part of the journal issue or other medium in which the Article is included.

By signing this Agreement, the author(s), and in the case of a Work Made For Hire, the employer, jointly and severally represent and warrant that the Article is original with the author(s) and does not infringe any copyright or violate any other right of any third parties, and that the Article has not been published elsewhere, and is not being considered for publication elsewhere in any form, except as provided herein.

The Author warrants that this contribution is original and has not been submitted or published in any other publication in a similar form and that he has full power to make this grant. The Author declares that all coauthors of this article have been informed of the submission. The Author signs for and accepts responsibility for releasing this material. After the Author sends this article to the PAID-WA Journals the Author cannot send this same article to any other Journal until he knows the outcome of his article in the PAID-WA Journals.

Each author's signature should appear below. The signing author(s) (and, in the case of a Work Made for Hire, the signing employer) also represent and warrant that they have the full power to enter into this Agreement and to make the grants contained herein.

Note: The agreement should be signed by (at least one) the authors who have been approved to do so as such by his/her co-authors to take up the authorship responsibility.
